2024

A brush, paper, some colours and infinite joy.
This is the line that links all our lives.

Again we are here today, from 88 countries of the world, to witness that Peace can still explode.

FabrianoInAcquarello 2024
the Leaders and Admins community
Anna Massinissa, curator

Our aim, our vision and statement:
We reiterate… "Nothing can divide Art. This catalog, as well as the conference meeting, come after years of fighting, in a time when the earth has become aware of big naturalistic risks and wars; all over the world anger and hate have amplified : tragedy is a scenario that is constantly under our eyes.
It is a time of very difficult challenges to face, as we feel that we are completely useless. We wonder if what we have done, as men and as artistic operators, makes sense and if it has been of some use to the culture of peace that has united us".
Again, this is the moment in which, bravely, we must leverage the experiences gained and be very clear about our vision of a single and not divisible world, in which NOTHING CAN DIVIDE ART. ART belongs to EVERYONE.
name "Fabriano" - not a simple word, but the very name of our land, the one in which we believe and to which we dedicate this long work that accompanies us throughout the year.

FabrianoInAcquarello from 2017 is The International Watercolor Museum

Even if it is only a statup it is the first Museum completely dedicated to contemporary international watercolor and it is located in Fabriano, Italy, the place where this pictorial technique matches up with the paper making tradition, which is the main local excellence since the thirteenth century. For over a decade this City in the Marche region hinterland has organized many international events dedicated to the world of water painting and has hosted a large number of contemporary artists and masters, who now acknowledge this territory as the potential capital of Aquarello. The Museum was thus born as a testimony to an artistic experience of international relations and aesthetic reciprocity, by applying Relational Art to events in which masters and artists share projects and experiences, apply the technique and overwhelm it, giving the painting the role of interpretative language to better connect every culture.

The Municipal Administration, together with the InArte team, who has handled the project, placed the museum in the prestigious location of the Bishop's Palace, one of the historic buildings overlooking the famous Piazza del Comune. The exhibition halls host a collection of over 750 artworks. A very interesting collection with traditional watercolor together with innovative paintings and also pictorial applications from international schools, a collection that will grow in the future thanks to new collaborations with other countries around the world. The museum aims to be the container of the works that bear witness to the art of contemporary watercolor, but also a place of activity through temporary exhibitions, many workshops, technique demostrations, conferences for the Waterpaint world, so that it might achieve the right artistic visibility and grow in technique and contamination towards a future that will hopefully be less traditional, very interesting and, finally, innovative. The Collection of the "International Watercolor Museum" is the trace road that the international contemporary watercolor artists, along with the major masters in the world, have drawn in the past years of watercolor performances in our city. Since 2006 Fabriano has welcome hundreds of artists from all continents. They first came to trace the roots of the artistic paper manufactury, then have discovered and painted the beauty of the places in the international language of Art. The "Museum" is therefore a starting point, since it is intended to be a place that can welcome future watercolorists and reap future tracks. The "Museum" is dedicated to all the masters and contemporary artists, fans, visitors - to all those who appreciate the transparency of the natural pigment traced on paper. It is unique in the world and celebrates the whole world , in the hope that painting, in its unique and international language with no barriers, will be the seed of knowledge, reciprocity and peace.

FabrianoInAcquarello from 2020 is
The International Watercolor Platform

The Platform is a Worldwide Watercolor Directory. A common project being developed by the contemporary watercolor community around the world. A meeting place for the international watercolor community. It is not a social network, but a working tool to organize international communication among all who play a role in the water-based art field: artists, audiences, schools, producers of art materials, masters, societies, brands, museums, galleries, curators and other related groups. The Platform, through a Personal Profile, interacts with social networks and personal websites of members to promote the artists and the other professional actors of watercolor world, by their own communication channels.

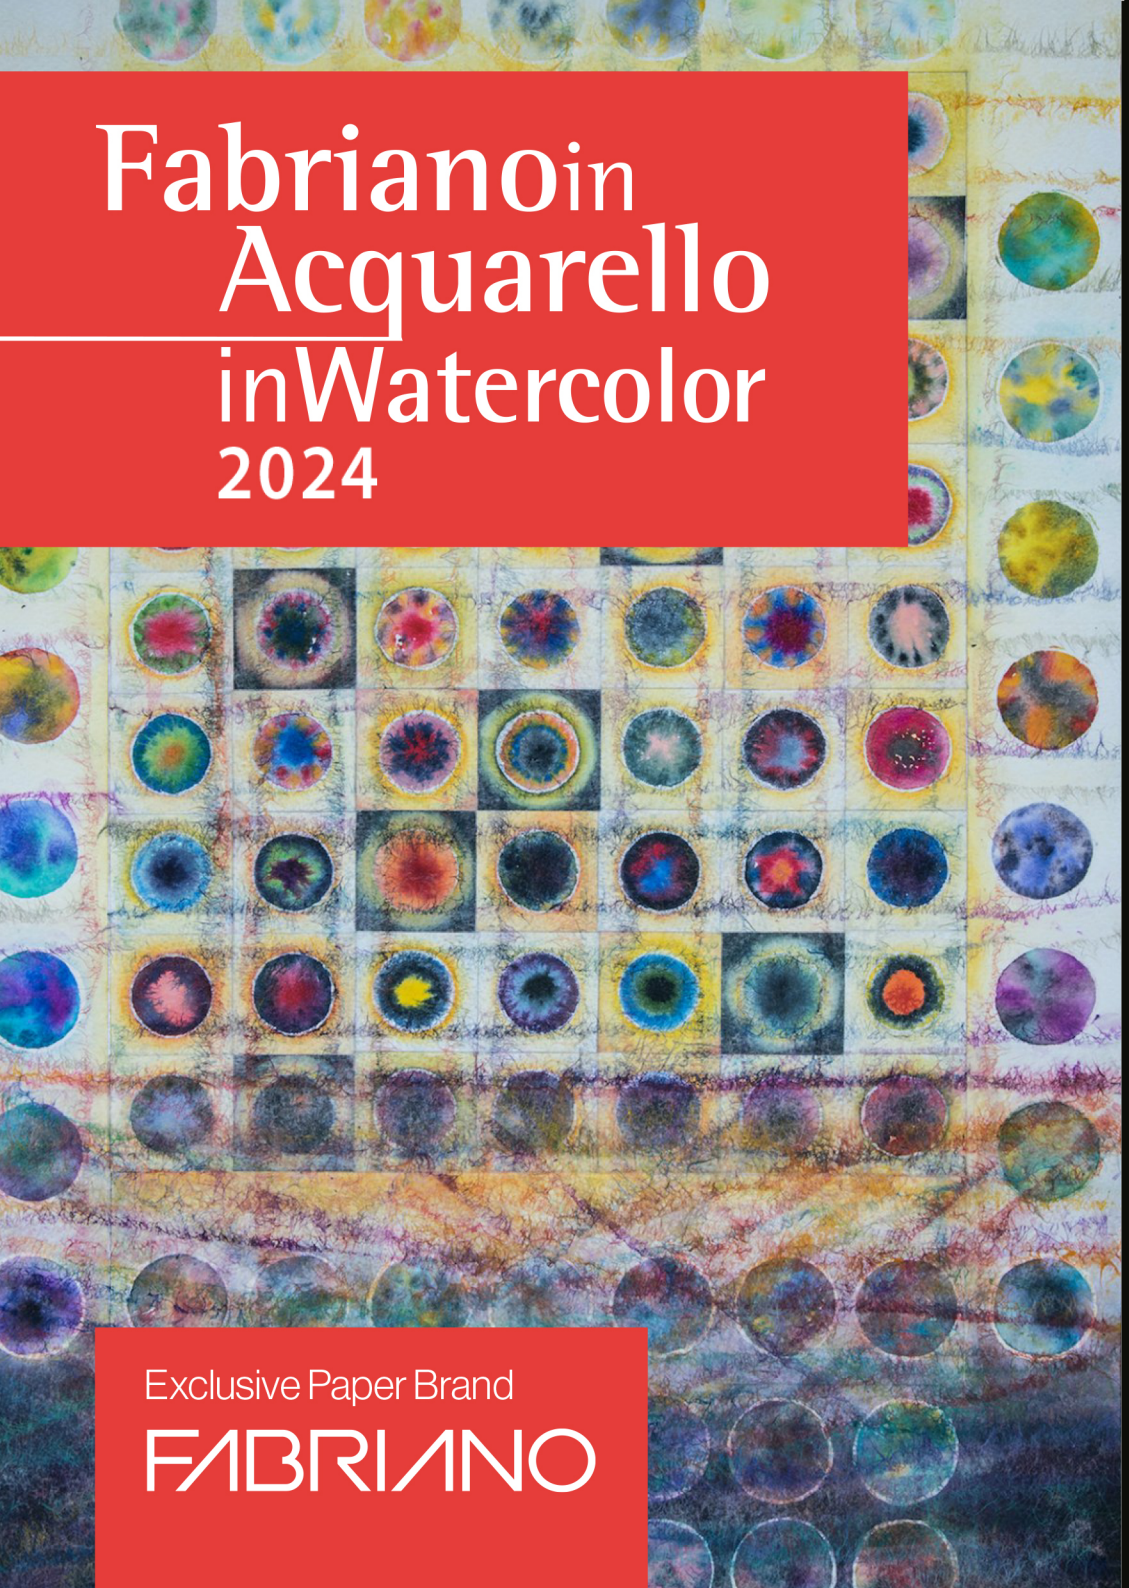

It is also a will of the International Watercolor Platform to give high visibility to watercolor events and artists across the globe. The International Watercolor Platform was born from the artistic relationships formed during the creation of the International Watercolor Museum. It is the practical culmination of the work that has brought together more than 80 watercolor communities from all over the world to meet every year at the FabrianoInAcquarello conference meeing.

Therefor the International Watercolor Platform includes organizations, associations, societies, art material manufacturers, event organizers and independent artists: they join together with no political or commercial agenda. Above all, the Platform promotes cooperation and support dedicated to the promotion of contemporary watercolor. No one group is more important than another.

The Platform protects traditional techniques while at the same time encouraging new ideas and cutting-edge technology for a new generation of artists. The focus is on cooperation and not competition, on sharing experiences and knowledge. As an international tool for communication, the Platform seeks to promote artists, events, communities, societies, and all involved in the world of watercolor.

HOW TO participate / register:

The International Watercolor Platform has a public area and a password-protected area. The public area is open to any consult and can welcome all audience. To enter password-protected areas is necessary to register by the SUBSCRIBE process and by completing the PERSONAL PROFILE with the link to personal socials, to web site, to curriculum and compiling a photo gallery. Master artists, artists, watercolor societies, schools, brands, art material manufacturers, galleries, curators, watercolor communities of any kind by SUBSCRIBE became MEMBERS of the Platform and became responsible of their Personal Profile.

FABRIANO

Artistico paper represents the culmination of eight centuries of Fabriano papermaking tradition.

It is a watercolour paper made with 100% cotton fibers produced on a mould machine, a special industrial process that reproduces the typical characteristics of hand-made paper.

Artistico paper has a strong surface,
4 deckled-edges, a fixed-point watermark
and is Vegan Friendly.
It is available in 2 shades of white:
Traditional and Extra White, both without bleaches or optical brighteners, 2 grammages and 4 surfaces: hot and cold pressed, rough and soft.

Let your paintbrush and your creativity run free on Artistico paper.
